NOTES—First Sheet.

D.O.No.GAD 21

Office of the Comptroller in Mysore,

Bangalore, 14th July 1919.

My dear Sir,

While dealing with a personal case of yours, upon which this office had put up a note, I casually observed that for the period of one month from 13th January 1918 to 12th February 1918 (both days inclusive), during which you officiated as Financial Secretary and were allowed to draw Acting Allowance on Rs.1,400/- in G.O.No.G.12580-81/G.M. 412-17-10 dated the 13th March 1918, this office has passed salary to you at Rs.1,380/- (Pay Rs.1,100/- plus acting allowance Rs.280/-). But as you held during the said period the charge of the office of Comptroller in addition, your salary should be regulated by Art.97 Mysore Service Regulations. The Government Order of 13th March 1918 merely fixes the pay on which your acting allowance should be calculated, but the allowance that should be granted to you under Clause (ii) of the above Article for the charge of the office of the Comptroller, held in addition and your total salary for charge of both the appointments do not appear to have been considered. A reference, in the ordinary course, should have been made to Government and as this was not done, I point it out to you for such action as you deem necessary to take now.

Yours sincerely,

M. N. Krishnarao Esq., B.A.,

Financial Secretary to the Govt. of Mysore,

2/ Submitted to Dewan,

I received the attached letter from the Comptroller some time back. During the period referred to by the Comptroller, I held both charges, Financial Secretary's and Comptroller's, and I request that Government may kindly grant me such allowance as they may consider suitable under Art. 97 (ii), M.S.R. The Comptroller's charge is heavy and my representation may kindly be brought under Note 1 to Art.97, M.S.R. The most recent instance of this nature is that of Mr. B. Ramaswamiah, who was given additional remuneration for the charge of Muzrai Superintendent.

3/ What is the amount involved?
2 Why was no representation made earlier?

23-12-19

4/ The maximum admissible under the rule is half the pay of the appt of Comptr. i.e. ½ of Rs 1000 = 500. Of half the admissible amt is given as in the case of Mr. Ramaswamiah, it will be ½ × 500 = 250. The period was only one month and the amt involved will therefore be only Rs 250.

5/ The delay is due to oversight —
